

NIFTY 50 QUARTERLY EARNINGS DRIFT SYSTEM

12-Quarter Audited Performance with T-8 to T+8 Trading Days, Margin Recycling & 0.05% Futures Cost

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY & AUDITED MANDATE

This quantitative research note documents the audited performance of the Nifty 50 Quarterly Earnings Drift System across 12 completed quarters (FY24_Q3 to FY27_Q2). The strategy operates within a strict [T-8, T+8] trading day search space (excluding Saturdays, Sundays & NSE Holidays), evaluating entry at 09:20 AM on day $T-N$ and exit at 03:15 PM on day $T+M$. Capital allocation uses a dynamic concurrent margin recycling model, where positions open on overlapping dates draw from the pool, and positions closing on day $T+M$ release their margin immediately back to the pool to be re-used by subsequent trades. All metrics explicitly incorporate a 0.05% futures transaction cost per leg (0.05% entry + 0.05% exit). Across 601 completed trades, the model delivers a net win rate of 69.72%, generating +Rs. 8,377,914.12 Net Realized Profit on an average individual quarter budget of Rs. 5,689,782.33 (Rs. 56.90 Lakhs), yielding an average net return of 12.27% Net Profit per Quarter on peak required capital.

1. Trading Day Boundary Logic (T-8 to T+8) & Margin Recycling Rules

- 1. T-8 to T+8 Trading Day Arithmetic (Excluding Sat, Sun & NSE Holidays): The empirical search space spans 8 trading sessions prior to event date $T$ ($T-8$) to 8 trading sessions post $T$ ($T+8$). Non-trading days (Saturdays, Sundays, and exchange holidays) are strictly skipped. For example, if $T$ is Monday Oct 12, $T-1$ is Friday Oct 9, and $T-8$ steps back to Wednesday Sep 30.
- 2. Position Overlap Rule ("Fund Busy"): If Stock B enters on date $E_B$ while Stock A is active ($E_A \le E_B \le X_A$), Stock A's margin $M_A$ is busy. Stock B draws new additional capital $M_B$ from the quarter's pool.
- 3. Sequential Release Rule ("Fund Free"): When Stock A exits on date $X_A$ at 03:15 PM, its position is squared off, PnL is booked, and its margin $M_A$ is immediately released back to the cash pool. Stock C entering on $E_C > X_A$ re-uses this released cash.
- 4. Individual Quarter Budget: Each quarter has its own independent budget equal to the maximum peak concurrent margin occupied on any single day: $Capital_{\text{Quarter}} = \max_d \sum_i \text{Active on } d \text{ Margin}_i$. Peak required budget averages Rs. 5,689,782.33 (Rs. 56.90 Lakhs), delivering an average net return of 12.27% per quarter.
